

THE ST. PAUL'S SENTINEL

Honoring and preserving our community's heritage

A publication of the Committee to Save St. Paul's, December 5, 2006

LETTERS TO SENATOR HANNON

The Committee to Save St. Paul's wants you to add one more person to your holiday card mailing list: Senator Kemp Hannon.

The Senator values your personal comments very highly, and those comments show the Senator that there is community support for significant public space in the redeveloped St. Paul's. A quick sentence or two expressing your support for The Committee to Save St. Paul's proposal for a mixed use solution and retention of public control of the St. Paul's property will have a very big impact.

When you sit down to write your Holiday and Christmas cards this year, it is essential that you jot a note to Senator Kemp Hannon. His address is 224 Seventh Street, Garden City, NY 11530. If you're sending email holiday notes, the Senator's email address is Hannon@senate.state.ny.us.

REMEMBER: TONIGHT'S COMMUNITY PRESENTATION AT STEWART SCHOOL HAS BEEN POSTPONED. We hope to reschedule after the holidays.

BOT MEETING THIS THURSDAY, DECEMBER 7, VILLAGE HALL, 8 P.M.

The Committee to Save St. Paul's feels it is important for residents to remain vigilant by their presence and attention to the discussion about St. Paul's at Village Board of Trustees meetings. We eagerly await the Board's announcement of specific ways in which residents can become involved in the decision-making process.

Please write letters to Garden City Mayor Gerard Lundquist and the Village Trustees expressing your views about St. Paul's.
